IT IS HEREBY ORDERED THAT:

1. The Debtor is authorized to retain and compensate the Ordinary Course Professionals identified on the OCP List attached hereto as Schedule 1 (as may be amended or supplemented by the Debtor from time to time in accordance with this Order), in the ordinary course of business, in accordance with the following compensation procedures (collectively, the “Compensation Procedures”) and the terms and conditions of this Order:

- a. Each Ordinary Course Professional on the OCP List attached as Schedule 1 to this Order (as may be amended or supplemented from time to time) shall file with the Court a declaration that such Ordinary Course Professional does not represent or hold any interest adverse to the Debtor or to the estate with respect to the matter on which such Ordinary Course Professional is to be employed (each a “Declaration”), substantially in the form attached as Schedule 2 to the Order, within fourteen (14) days after the later of: (i) the date of entry of this Order; (ii) the date on which such Ordinary Course Professional commences services for the Debtor; or (iii) the date on which such Ordinary Course Professional is added to the OCP List.
- b. Each Ordinary Course Professional shall serve the Declaration s upon: (i) the Debtor, PO Box 1288, Greens Farms, CT 06838 (Attn.: Roop Bhullar, roop@griddy.com); (ii) proposed counsel to the Debtor: Baker Botts L.L.P., 910 Louisiana Street, Houston, Texas 77002 (Attn.: David R. Eastlake, david.eastlake@bakerbotts.com), and 30 Rockefeller Plaza, New York, NY 10112 (Attn.: Robin Spigel, robin.spigel@bakerbotts.com, and Chris Newcomb, Chris.Newcomb@bakerbotts.com); (iii) the Office of the United States Trustee for the Southern District of Texas, 515 Rusk Street, Suite 3516, Houston, Texas 77002 (Attn.: Jana Whitworth, jana.whitworth@usdoj.gov); (iv) proposed counsel to the Committee: McDermott Will & Emery, McDermott Will & Emery LLP, 340 Madison Avenue, New York, NY 10173-1922 (Attn: Darren Azman); ; and (v) the Office of the Attorney General of Texas, Bankruptcy & Collections Division, P.O. Box 12548 MC008, Austin, Texas 78711 (Attn.: Abigail Ryan, Abigail.Ryan@oag.texas.gov) (collectively, the “Notice Parties”).

- c. The Notice Parties and any other party in interest shall have fourteen (14) days after the service of each Ordinary Course Professional’s Declaration to object to the retention of such Ordinary Course Professional (the “Objection Deadline”). The objecting party shall serve any such objection upon the Notice Parties and the respective Ordinary Course Professional on or before the Objection Deadline. If any such objection cannot be resolved within fourteen (14) days of service of such objection, the matter shall be scheduled for hearing before the Court at the next regularly scheduled omnibus hearing date, if any, that is no less than fourteen (14) days from that date or on a date otherwise agreeable to the parties thereto.
- d. If no objection is received by the Objection Deadline with respect to any particular Ordinary Course Professional, then retention of the Ordinary Course Professional shall be deemed approved by the Court without hearing or further order and the Debtor shall be authorized to retain and pay each such Ordinary Course Professional (to the extent an objection was not filed). The Debtor shall be authorized to retain such Ordinary Course Professional as of the date each such Ordinary Course Professional commenced providing postpetition services to the Debtor and pay such Ordinary Course Professional as set forth below. For the avoidance of doubt, the Debtor shall not pay any OCP any amounts for invoiced fees and expense reimbursement until the applicable OCP has filed a Declaration with the Court and the applicable Objection Deadline has passed with no objections having been filed or, in the event an objection is filed, until such objection is resolved or upon order of the Court.
- e. The Debtor may modify the OCP List as necessary to add or remove Ordinary Course Professionals, from time to time, in its sole discretion. In the event an Ordinary Course Professional is added to the OCP List, the Debtor shall file a notice with the Court listing the additional Ordinary Course Professionals that the Debtor intends to employ (each, an “OCP Notice”) and to serve each OCP Notice on the Notice Parties. Additionally, each additional Ordinary Course Professional listed in the OCP Notice shall serve a Declaration (substantially in the form attached hereto as Schedule 2) on the Notice Parties in accordance with the Order. The Notice Parties and any other party in interest shall have fourteen (14) days following the date of service of an OCP Notice to notify the Debtor’s attorneys, in writing, of any objection to the proposed retention of any additional Ordinary Course Professional, file any such objection with the Court, and serve any such objection upon each of the Notice Parties so as to be actually received within fourteen (14) days of service of such OCP Notice.

- f. The Debtor shall be authorized to pay, without formal application to the Court by any Ordinary Course Professional, one-hundred percent (100%) of fees and disbursements to each of the Ordinary Course Professionals retained pursuant to these procedures (after such Ordinary Course Professional has filed a Declaration (substantially in the form attached hereto as Schedule 2) and (i) after the applicable Objection Deadline has passed without an objection being served by a Notice Party or (ii) if an objection has been served by a Notice Party, after such objection has been resolved pursuant to the procedures described in subparagraph (c) above) upon the Ordinary Course Professional's submission to the Debtor of an appropriate invoice setting forth in reasonable detail the nature of the services rendered and expenses incurred after the Petition Date; provided that while this chapter 11 case is pending, the fees of each Ordinary Course Professional set forth on Schedule 1 attached hereto, excluding costs and disbursements, may not exceed $40,000 per month on average over a rolling three (3) month period (the "OCP Monthly Cap"); provided, further, that while the chapter 11 case is pending, the aggregate fees of each Ordinary Course Professional set forth on Schedule 1 attached hereto, excluding costs and disbursements, may not exceed $280,000 beginning as of the Petition Date (the "OCP Case Cap").
- g. On a monthly basis, to the extent an Ordinary Course Professional seeks compensation in excess of the applicable OCP Monthly Cap amount, any excess fees over the OCP Monthly Cap amount ("Excess Fees") will be made payable up to an extent where an Ordinary Course Professional is still in compliance with the OCP Monthly Cap over the rolling three (3) month period. To the extent an Ordinary Course Professional seeks compensation of any unpaid Excess Fees in excess of the OCP Monthly Cap over the rolling three (3) month period, the Ordinary Course Professional shall (i) file with the Court a Notice of Fees in Excess of the OCP Monthly Cap (the "Notice of Excess Fees") and an invoice setting forth, in reasonable detail, the nature of the services rendered and disbursements actually incurred, including all time entries and all fees incurred by the Ordinary Course Professional for the relevant month that are in excess of the OCP Monthly Cap (on a rolling 3-month basis) and (ii) serve the Notice of Excess Fees on the Notice Parties. Interested parties shall then have fourteen (14) days to file an objection to the Notice of Excess Fees with the Court. If after fourteen (14) days no objection is filed, the Excess Fees shall be deemed approved, and the Ordinary Course Professional may be paid one-hundred percent (100%) of its fees and one-hundred percent (100%) of its expenses without the need to file a fee application. To the extent an Ordinary Course Professional seeks compensation in excess of the OCP Case Cap, the Debtor shall file an application to employ such Ordinary Course Professional pursuant to sections 327 or 328 of the Bankruptcy Code, as applicable, and such Ordinary Course Professional's subsequent compensation shall be governed by the Court's order, if any, approving such Ordinary Course Professional's employment.

- h. For as long as the Debtor's chapter 11 case is pending, the Debtor shall include in its monthly operating reports (each a "Monthly Operating Report") a statement reflecting the name of the Ordinary Course Professional, the fees and expenses paid to each Ordinary Course Professional by the Debtor for the time period covered by the relevant Monthly Operating Report and all postpetition payments made to that Ordinary Course Professional as of the period covered by the Monthly Operating Report and serve copies of the Monthly Operating Report on the Notice Parties.

2. To the extent that any agreement between the Debtor and an Ordinary Course Professional provides for the indemnification by the Debtor of such Ordinary Course Professional in connection with the services that are the subject of this Motion (each such agreement, an "OCP Agreement"), such indemnification provisions are approved, subject to the following modifications, applicable during the pendency of this case:

- a. The Ordinary Course Professional shall not be entitled to indemnification, contribution or reimbursement pursuant to the OCP Agreement for services other than the services provided under the OCP Agreement, unless such services and the indemnification, contribution or reimbursement are approved by the Court.
- b. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the OCP Agreement, the Debtor shall have no obligation to indemnify the Ordinary Course Professional, or provide contribution or reimbursement to the Ordinary Course Professional, for any claim or expense that is either: (i) judicially determined (the determination having become final) to have arisen from the Ordinary Course Professional's gross negligence, willful misconduct, self-dealing, bad faith, breach of fiduciary duty (if any) or fraud; (ii) for a contractual dispute in which the Debtor alleges the breach of the Ordinary Course Professional's contractual obligations if the Court determines that indemnification, contribution or reimbursement would not be permissible under applicable law; (iii) of any type for which the Court determines that indemnification, contribution or reimbursement would not be permissible pursuant to In re Thermadyne Holdings Corp., 283 B.R. 749, 756 (B.A.P. 8th Cir. 2002); or (iv) settled prior to a judicial determination under (i) or (ii), but determined by the Court, after notice and a hearing, to be a claim or expense for which the Ordinary Course Professional should not receive indemnity, contribution or reimbursement under the terms of the OCP Agreement as modified by the Court.

- c. If, before the earlier of (i) the entry of an order confirming a chapter 11 plan in this case (that order having become a final order no longer subject to appeal) or (ii) the entry of an order closing the chapter 11 case, the Ordinary Course Professional believes that it is entitled to the payment of any amounts by the Debtor on account of the Debtor's indemnification, contribution and/or reimbursement obligations under the OCP Agreement (as modified by this Order), including the advancement of defense costs, the Ordinary Course Professional must file an application therefor in this Court, and the Debtor may not pay any such amounts to the Ordinary Course Professional before the entry of an order by the Court approving the payment. All parties in interest shall retain the right to object to any demand by the Ordinary Course Professional for indemnification, contribution or reimbursement. In the event that the Ordinary Course Professional seeks reimbursement from the Debtor for attorneys' fees and expenses in connection with the payment of an indemnity claim pursuant to the OCP Agreement, the invoices and supporting time records for the attorneys' fees and expenses shall be included in the Ordinary Course Professional's own applications, both interim and final, but determined by the Court after notice and a hearing.

3. This Order shall not apply to any professional retained by the Debtor pursuant to a separate order of the Court.

4. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, nothing in this Order shall prevent the United States Trustee from seeking a determination from the Court (a) requiring an OCP to file a separate retention application under section 327(a) or 327(e) of the Bankruptcy Code or (b) altering the amount of the OCP Monthly Cap.

5. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the Debtor is authorized to retain and compensate Sitrick and Company, a unit of Sitrick Group, LLC ("Sitrick"), solely for the period from March 15, 2021 through April 19, 2021. The compensation sought by Sitrick will not exceed $27,500 inclusive of its retainer. In connection therewith, Sitrick shall promptly file a Declaration with the Court and is directed to apply any remaining amounts of its prepetition retainer as a credit toward its fees and expenses incurred on or prior to April 19, 2021.

6. All notices given in accordance with the Compensation Procedures shall be deemed sufficient and adequate notice and in full compliance with the applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules and the Bankruptcy Local Rules.

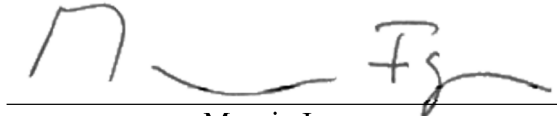

7. The requirements of Bankruptcy Rule 6004(a) are waived.

8. Notwithstanding any Bankruptcy Rule or Bankruptcy Local Rule to the contrary, the terms and conditions of this Order are immediately effective and enforceable upon its entry.

9. The Debtor is hereby authorized to take all actions necessary to effectuate the relief granted in this Order in accordance with the Motion.

10. This Court shall retain exclusive jurisdiction to hear and determine all matters arising from or related to the implementation, interpretation and enforcement of this Order.
